Presskit | Birds ov Paradise

Biography

Birds ov Paradise is an electronic music project by David Sabel, a sound artist and musician from Gothenburg, Sweden. He is a part of the Hypnus records family but also has releases on other labels such as Aniara Records, Jens Records, Konstrukt and Manjumasi. As a live-act he creates deep-techno with the use of analogue machines, modulators, samplers and bass-guitar. The sets are composed as sonic journeys with the intention to tell a story. Every set has its own drama that is 50% composed and 50% improvised. Birds ov Paradise's varied world of music could be categorised with the following genres: Drone, Noise, Deep-Techno, Downtempo, IDM as well as Dungeon-Synth.

Apart from a passion for making sound installations and building experimental instruments, he also plays bass with Anna von Hausswolff, writes for his band "Bada" and composes music for contemporary dance performances and theatre.
