

Gun!lla

→ PRESSKIT

Gun!lla is an electronic music producer from Berlin. Her genre moves from minimalistic to deep tech, house, experimental and wave. She has a talent for creating completely new sounds live and improvising. Her performance has a lasting effect! Gun!lla intuitively creates sounds to every mood of herself. Building a whole new liveset in a week is not unusual.

Her second live Project is with her Brother O/Y. The music melts into each other, networks with each other, connects and brings people into another sphere. Although the two play differently on their own, together it is always a great symbiosis with surprising effects.

Her third project is her new alias KLIT. As KLIT, the artist from Berlin performs as a Techno DJ, inspired by the famous Berlin clubs, Berghain, Heideglühn, Else etc. She thrives in the genre, loves to dance to it and immerse herself in the world of fast, light and not too dark techno. Whether live or as a DJ, Gun!lla aka KLIT loves it playful.
