Presskit | Matija

Biography

Matija has travelled far: he started his musical journey in the Swiss province where he did his first steps in music. He then moved to the jungle of the German capital and stayed there 6 years to improve his ability in the handcraft of producing electronic music. This is also when the symbiotic friendship to Dave Dinger took place which enriched both personally as well as in terms of music production. Today Matija can look back on 24 years of experience as a DJ.

When you make it in Berlin, Zurich is an easy city to conquer. When Matija returned to Switzerland he reached out to the prestigious swiss music metropol. He organised regular parties in Supermarket as well as Hive and other famous institutions, worked as a nightmanager in Fridas Büxe and Hive and also frequently played there as a resident DJ. His high quality productions of electronic music led to a spread of booking through Switzerland and also made him internationally recognized and valued as a renominated self-made DJ.
