Presskit | Juli Lee

Biography

Not to bow to any genre is part of what gives Juli Lee's music its attraction. Unconventionally she combines groovy rhythms and driving basslines with elements of a broad variety of well selected styles and succeeds to create a homogenous sound, despite diversity. The bottom line of her sound is a danceable catchy mix of House & Techno.

She does not believe in the division of underground and commercial music. "A track is good because it's good and not necessarily worse just because more people listen to it." Nonetheless she always tries to get the crowd with new, not yet overdosed sounds and thinks that it is the duty of a DJ to spread good music that easily gets lost and undiscovered in the flood of information in our social media society.

"The moment when you share music with others and you realise, that everyone in room feels the same, triggered by the sound coming from the speakers, is one of the purest forms of love I know."

Another important vehicle for letting her environment participate in the music was the production of Juli Lee's own tracks. In the meantime, this has led to various releases on labels such as Myr, Well Done!, Hive Audio, Variety Music, Moonbootique, King Street. Her talent as a musician has already led her to perform around the world. Juli Lee is also a resident at the infamous Klaus Club in Zurich since 2019 and is published by BlackBox. 2021 she also founded a record label called Klaus:elle with her two colleagues Pazkal & Nici Faerber where they released music by Mihai Popoviciu, Markus Homm, Gorge, LondonGround, Deetron, Madmotormiquel, and many more.
